Die Martis, 22 Februarii,

1647.

Hereas by an Ordinance of the twenty eighth of February, one thousand six hundred forty five, there was charged upon the Excise in course the summe of twenty thousand pounds with interest, after the rate of eight pounds per centum, payable for the use of the three Regiments of Horse, late under the severall commands of Major Haynes Major Le-Hunt, and Major Gibb, and of Capitaine Wayletts Company of Dragoones raised sent out, and maintained by the Easterne Association. And whereas the Committee of Lords and Commons for the Easterne Association was contented, and did agree that the same should be issued forth, and disposed of for the present supply of the Army; And by an

an Ordinance of the eighth day of December last, it was thereupon Ordained and Declared, That in satisfaction of the said Agreement, the said twenty thousand pounds with interest, due on the first of March next, shall be repaid by Sir John Wollaston, and the rest of the Treasurers at Warre out of the Receipts and Assessements for the Army upon the first of March next, to such Treasurers as the said Committee shall appoint. And whereas the present necessities of the Navie are so pressing that the same require a speedy supply of Monies, without which those affaires cannot be carried on ; And the said Committee for the Easterne Association is contented, and doe agree, That the said twenty thousand pounds shall be forborne, and be paid and imployed for the use of the Navie :

Be it Ordained by the Lords and Commons Assembled in Parliament, That the said Treasurers of Warre shall have hereby power to pay the said twenty thousand pounds unto Sir Henry Vane junior, Knight, Treasurer of the Navie for the use of the Navie, upon Warrant from the Committee of the Army, or any five of them directed to the Treasurers at Warres ; the which Committee of the Army is hereby required to issue their VVarrant to the same purpose accordingly, and that the Receipt or Receipts of the said Sir Henry Vane shall be to the said Treasurers at VVarre their sufficient sufficient discharge. And the said Treasurers at VVarre are hereby Ordered and required without any further or other VVarrant then as aforesaid, to pay the interest due for the said twenty thousand pounds to the first of March next, unto the Committee for the Easterne Association, or to such Treasurer as they shall appoint to receive the same, whose Receipt or Receipts shall be to the said Treasurer at VVarre their sufficient discharge.

And whereas both Houses of Parliament did by their Order of the twenty eighth of May, 1647. charge upon the Receipt of the Grand Excise in course, the summe of one hundred and fifty thousand pounds payable to the said Treasurers at VVarre, for payment of the Arreares due to the inferiour Officers, and Souldiers of the Army, under the Command of Sir THOMAS FAIRFAX, for which the said Houses of Parliament having since made other provision, did thereupon Order the first of February last, That the first seventy thousand pounds, part of the said one hundred and fifty thousand pounds as the same shall grow due in course, be paid unto the said Treasurer of the Navie, for the use of the Navie.

Be it therefore further Ordained, and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in satisfaction of the said Agreement of the Committee for the Easterne Association, and for their security the said twenty thousand pounds which was payable to them upon the first of March next as aforesaid, shall be repaid by the Commissioners of Excise out of the first Monies of the said seventy thousand pounds assigned to the Navie, part of the said one hundred and fifty thousand pounds charged upon the Excise in course, and formerly assigned to the Army as aforesaid, and that interest for the said twenty thousand pounds after the rate of eight pounds per centum, be paid every six Moneths, and doe begin from the first of March next, and be continued for so long time as the said twenty thousand pounds shall be forborne, and till the same shall fall due and be paid in course as aforesaid; And the Commissioners of Excise for the time being shall have power, and are hereby authorized and required, to make payment of the said twenty thousand pounds, and the interest thereof as above-said, unto the said Committee of Lords and Commons for the Easterne Association, or to such Treasurer as they shall appoint to receive the same; whose Receipt or Receipts shall be to the Commissioners of Excise their full and sufficient discharge in that behalfe.

And it is likewise Ordained by the Authority aforesaid; That the said twenty thousand sand pounds, and the interest thereof due to the first of March next, and payable by the Treasurers at VVarre as aforesaid, and likewise the interest thereof to begin from the first of March next, and payable by the Commissioners of Excise as aforesaid, shall be issued and paid out by VVarrant from the said Committee of Lords and Commons for the Easterne Association, or of any five, or more of them, who have hereby a power to grant forth their VVarrants accordingly for payment thereof, as well for the re-imburs-ment of all such summes of moneys with interest for the same, as shall appeare to the said Committee to have been advanced and lent, or paid for maintaining of the said three Regiments of Horse, and Company of Dragoones in the service against Newmarke, upon the Ordinance of 28. February 1645. first above mentioned, and for satisfaction of such dammages as shall also appeare to the said Committee to have been sustained by the Committees of the severall Counties of the Easterne Association, or by any of them in the losse of Horses, Armes, and Furniture by them provided, for the furnishing of the said Horse and Dragoones for the said service, as also for payment and satisfaction of the Arreares which shall appeare to the said Committee to be due for the pay of such Officers and Souldiers of the said Regiments of Horse,

Horse, and Company of Dragoones as have served in reducing of Nemarke, and that the said twenty thousand pounds and interest may be issued and paid according to the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance.

It is also Ordained, That the said Committee for the Easterne Association, or any five of them shall have power and authority, and are hereby authorized and enabled by themselves, and such as they have or shall appoint, and by such waies and meanes as they, or any five of them shall thinke fit to take; state, audit, and determine as well the Accompts of all the said Officers and Souldiers for their pay, as well due upon the publique Faith, as for their present pay during the time of their said service; as also the Accompts of all Treasurers, and others that are to receive any proportion of the said summe of twenty thousand pounds, and interest by the appointment of the Committees of the Counties in the said Association as aforesaid.

And it is further Ordained, That the said Committee for the Easterne Association may reward, and pay such person or persons as they have or shall imploy for the better execution of this service for their paines and charges out of the said summes, or of any other Treasure in their dispose as they shall thinke fit.

And

And further it is Ordained; That the said Committee shall administer an Oath, which they have hereby power for to doe, as well to such persons as are to passe their Accompts before them as afore said; as also to all other persons upon all other Accompts within survey of the said Committee for the better clearing the truth thereof.

Provided alwaies, That neither this present Ordinance, nor any thing therein contained shall extend to the prejudice of the making voyd of an Order of the House of Commons, made the three and twentieth of December last past, for the payment of sixteen hundred sixty three pounds unto Captaine Edward Wingate, which said Order is hereby confirmed.

Hereas the Committees of the severall Counties of Norfolke, Suffolke, Essex, Huntington, Herts, Cambridge, and the Isle of Ely, and the City and County of Norwich, have by themselves and others advanced, payed, and lent great summes of Money for payment of the Regiments of Horse and other Forces lately imployed under the severall commands of Major Heynes, Major Le-Hunt, and Major Gibb, and of Captaine Wayletts company company of Dragoones, and no satisfaction or security as yet hath been given for the same, the charge thereof being computed to amount to ten thousand pounds :

Be it Ordained by the Lords and Commons in Parliament assembled, That the sum of ten thousand pounds with interest for the same, after the rate of eight pounds per Cent. payable every six moneths, be charged upon the grand Excise in course, and the Commissioners of Excise for the time being are hereby authorized and required to make payment of the said ten thousand pounds as the same shall grow due in Course and Interest for the same after the rate of eight pounds per Cent. payable every six moneths, and to begin from the first of March next for so long as the same shall be forborne unto the said Committee of Lords and Commons for the Easterne Association or to such Treasurer as they shall appoint to receive the same, whose Receipt or Receipts shall be to the said Commissioners of Excise their full and sufficient discharge, which Committee for the Easterne Association, or any five or more of them have hereby a power to grant forth their Warrants for payment of the said ten thousand pounds and Interests for the uses above mentioned.
